This coffeehouse-sized peanut butter cookie is sweet, tender, and stuffed with a chocolate heart of ooey-goey melted chips. Customers of Clare Cosi's Village Blend are always delighted to find these cookies in the Village Blend pastry case. Now with this step-by-step recipe, you can make these tasty chocolate-stuffed treats in your own kitchen. May you bake (and read) with joy! ~ Cleo

Makes 18–20 big, stuffed cookies

Ingredients:

- 1 cup (2 sticks) butter, softened
- 1-1/4 cups peanut butter (standard creamy, do not use sugarless)
- 1 cup granulated sugar plus 1/2 cup, for dusting
- 1 cup light brown sugar, firmly packed
- 2 large eggs, lightly beaten
- 2 teaspoons pure vanilla extract
- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup semisweet chocolate chips

Step 1—Make the dough: Using an electric mixer, cream the butter, peanut butter, and sugars in a bowl until light and fluffy. Add the eggs and vanilla and blend well. Finally, add the flour, baking powder, baking soda, and salt. Mix only enough until a soft dough forms.

Step 2—Form and stuff: Pinch off generous pieces of dough and roll into big, golf-ball-sized rounds. Cradle the cookie ball in one hand. Use the thumb of your opposite hand to make a deep indentation in the center of each cookie ball. Fill the hole with about a teaspoon of chocolate chips and then seal the chocolate inside the dough ball. Gently roll the balls in white, granulated sugar for a finished look.

Step 3—Freeze: Place the cookie balls on a wax-paper-covered plate in the freezer for 30 minutes. (The wax paper will prevent the dough from adhering to the plate.) This freezing step is the key to a successful cookie. If you don't freeze the cookie dough before baking, the cookie may break while baking and the chocolate may ooze out instead of staying in the center of the cookie. (If you plan to freeze the dough longer than 30 minutes, wrap it in plastic and foil to prevent freezer burn.)

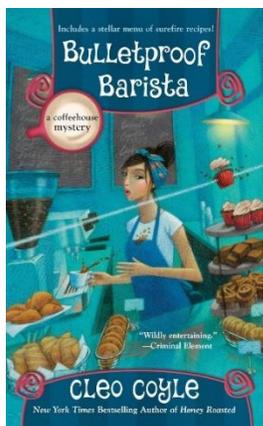

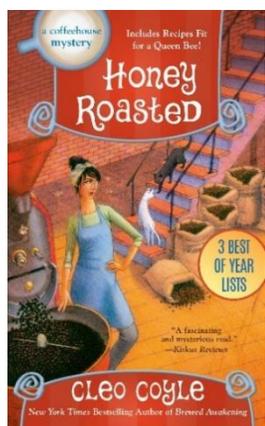

Step 4—Bake: Preheat the oven to 350°F. Place the chilled cookie balls on baking sheets lined with parchment paper, keeping the balls a few inches apart to allow for spreading. Bake them for 20–30 minutes (possibly longer if they've been in the freezer for a day or two). Just remember, the cookies are not done until they flatten out, so be patient and wait for this to happen. The chocolate should stay stuffed inside. If it starts to ooze a bit, however, a nice cover for this is to gently dust the cookie tops with confectioners' sugar.

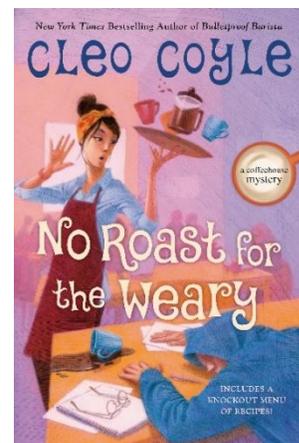

Final Note: When making cookies, always allow your baking sheets to cool before putting more dough on them. A hot baking sheet will cause any cookie to spread too much and please do...
